

ABSTRACT

The upper opening which opens the blast-processing chamber can be opened after the door moves slidely to the up and down directions, the door does not project
5 outwardly from the case when the door is opened, it can be installed to the small space. Also it can be prevented to collide against the door.